

Robert K Hitchcock

This paper will address questions about the evolution of San religion in southern Africa, including biology, psychology, and culture of San trance healing, the varied roles of San healers, discussions and debates surrounding San rock art (paintings and petroglyphs) and the degree to which it is influenced by San shamans and vision states, and changes occurring in recent and contemporary San religious systems as they are impacted by contemporary belief systems in southern Africa.